

Brief Report on Celebration of Jai Kisan Jai Vigyan Week from 23rd-29th December 2017

Jai Kisan Jai Vigyan week was celebrated during 23rd-29th December 2017 at KVK, Sundargarh-II adopted villages. In which many activities and programmes were conducted for awareness of farming community regarding recent technological advances in agriculture and allied sector. The farmers & farm women were also exposed to technical knowhow and do how of entrepreneurship development through Oyster Mushroom Cultivation.

Date: 23.12.2017 – Village - Ranto, Block – Lathikata

Showcasing the technical knowhow through oyster mushroom cultivation among tribal ladies. They were made aware of using their leisure time to earn extra income and boost up household economy.

Date: 26.12.2017 – Village - Khatankudar, Block – Bisra

One SHG convention along with Farmers Scientist Interaction session was conducted for the WSHG members and office bearers in which they were given technical knowledge regarding latest technology on Value Addition, Preservation, Kitchen Garden and Drudgery Reduction tools, Sweet Corn cultivation and Disease Pest Management in winter vegetable crops.

Date: 27.12.2017

A survey team from Niti Ayog, Delhi visited the KVK and they were taken on a diagnostic field visit to villages Khatankudar in Bisra block and Guduguda villages in Nuagaon block. The team visited plots of Field Pea, Fresh Bean, Tomato, Garden Pea and homestead Kitchen Garden comprising of winter vegetables and greens, interacted with the farmers regarding precious year's activities such as Sweet Corn cultivation, Value Addition in Forest Produce and Vegetables, Drudgery Reduction Implements, BackYard Poultry, Mushroom, Weedicide application in Onion, Nursery Raising Techniques. The farmers & Farm women expressed their happiness for getting technological support and trainings from KVK scientists.

Date: 29.12.2017

A Road Show was organised in the village Khatankudar. Awareness programme was organised on recent technical knowledge through posters and placard display where all farmers and farm women participated.