

Brief report on natural farming of KVK Sundargarh-II

One day awareness cum training programme on “Natural Farming” was conducted on 30/3/2022 at village Ranto in Lathikata Block with 60 nos. of participants. During the programme; importance and scope of natural farming was explained to the farmers and farmwomen and how it's relevant to the present day scenario was given focus. Various types of natural ingredients available locally to boost up crop growth was demonstrated in the programme viz. Jivamrut, Bijamrut, Bio pesticides etc. Mainly zero tillage, use of locally available organic inputs for crop growth and plant protection were suggested to the participants to practice sustainable agriculture through natural farming.

Photographs:-

